Analysis & Interior Recommendation

Individuals of this combination are intellectual and their outlook is mature and they are very practical. They appreciate simple things in life which reflects in their homes too. It is suitable for them to have contemporary furniture which should be simple at the same time. Furnishings can have simple but bright colors; the flooring also can be wooden in their bedroom. They love traveling to far away places and also love the country life, so they can have an interior designed in rustic style with lots of place to display their collection collected from his travels, they like their environment to be like countryside, and would love to have a nice garden and pets like dogs around. A bungalow will be more appreciated rather than an apartment in their case. Also their interest in outdoor exercise can be satisfied in a bungalow better. They like freedom in their work, also they like to work where they meet people, and work is likely to suffer if they have to stay in one place. In this case, they can have a small work area at home also. Their cabin can be big, with a small discussion table and workstation separate. They can also have a mobile office or do work that involves a lot of traveling or moving around like travel and tourism etc. This star sign combined with this specific number would love to have parties every day so a properly designed living room with lots of sitting space should be the decor. The bed room of this person should emit lots of warmth and comfort and the decor could be like a 5 star hotel.

White		White symbolizes innocence and purity. White reflects light and is considered a summer color. White is popular in decoration and in fashion because it is light, neutral, and goes with everything.
Yellow		Cheerful sunny yellow is an attention getter. While it is considered an optimistic color, people lose their tempers more often in yellow rooms, thou this is a lucky color for this number, it is advisable to use this color thriftily, mixed with peace feeling color i.e. white, as anger is not advisable for people born with number one. Also this color could be overpowering if overused. Yellow color helps in increasing concentration, hence it can be used in the office and the directors/owners cabins especially on northeast wall as it would help in speeding up metabolism.
Pink		Pink is the most romantic color, is more tranquilizing. Pink also helps one to get motivated fast and to increase the output, but also tires one very fast. This is a very delicate color in interior and only experts can use this shade properly in the decor.
Blue		The color of the vastness i.e. sky and the ocean, blue is one of the most popular colors. Peaceful, tranquil blue causes the body to produce calming chemicals, it also symbolizes loyalty. People are more creative and productive in blue rooms.
